The Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Sir,

I am directed to report for the information of Government that the Guarding Establishment sanctioned by the Proceedings of Government no. 636-7 J. 51 dated 13th July 1896 for the Central Jail at Bangalore has been formed and to submit for sanction an estimate amounting to Rs 1050 prepared by the Military Secretary to Government for arms required for the use of the guarding establishment of the jail.

The Clothing Rules of 21st June 1895 require Jailors to wear a sword with belt under the patrol jacket, Chief warders and Head warders to carry short swords on extra mural duties and parades, officers of the Warder Establishment to carry batons and the warder guard to be provided with breach loading smooth bore Carbines with bayonets.

I am to request the early sanction of Government to the estimate. The cost may be
